Carlos Bonell is one of today's most celebrated guitarists. He studied at the Royal College of Music and gained prominence through his recording of Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez with the Montreal Symphony Orchestra and Charles Dutoit. His discography includes more than 20 recordings with music ranging from Bach to the Beatles.

His performance in Bromley will include a selection of classical pieces including Bach, Villa Lobos, Tarrega and BARRIOS as well as some of his own arrangements of Beatles songs.

In 2007 he was awarded the prestigious Spanish prize Premio Trujamán for his work for the solo guitar. His career includes TV, Film and CD recordings, worldwide tours, concertos with the major orchestras, and the creation of his own ensemble.
